

EXTRACT from CABLE: ~~SECRET~~ 2577 (IN-27329), 25 March 1949

Para 2. WASH undoubtedly holds voluminous file adverse informations on Subject as result his wartime collaboration with Germans. On basis personal contact it is our conviction he is single-minded anti-communist nationalist motivated by purely patriotic considerations. As realist, he avoids political considerations, hopes only for future Balkan settlement on basis U.S. sponsored plebescites.

Para 3. Subject is person of uncompromising personal honor, will fulfill all security requirements.

*****

Para 7. Subject can count on aid experienced Austrian I.S. operatives whose names he refused to reveal without their express consent, and encouraging attitude in reference our own security requirements. Other personalities:

- A. LACULSTER, confidential office manager (Graz).
- B. Christ HALOKI, Professor Commerce Graz University will serve to establish agency's bona fides without being informed of covert aims.
- C. Djelal KERVESH, Zagreb agent.
- D. Hadjida NOVAK, Sarajevo agent.
- E. Nasir PELIVAN, Belgrade agent.
- F. Rustem H. ROSTEM, Skoplje agent.
- G. Ibrahim LUFTI, chief agent at Prizren among resistance movement of Kosovo Sar Planina mountain area.
- H. Skender CURRI, Sami BECOLLI, chief aides to LUFTI.
- I. Shamsi VELA, Mitrovica agent.
- J. S. CURRI, Djakova agent.
- K. A. AHMET, Tetova agent. (Note: in above names, first and last names may have been reversed.)

*****

NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT

Declassified and Approved for Release
by the Central Intelligence Agency
Date: 2003 2005

EXEMPTIONS Section 3(b)

- (2)(A) Privacy ☐
- (2)(B) Methods/Sources ☒
- (2)(G) Foreign Relations ☐

~~TOP SECRET~~